Directions

How to get from the airport to the city centre

The Vienna International Airport (VIE) in Schwechat is about 20 km away in the southeast of Vienna. Train lines S7 and S2 (suburban railway “S-Bahn”) as well as the City Airport Train (CAT) connect the city center with the airport.

You can also take a taxi for your convenience, a taxi fare is at about 30 Euro. We recommend a pre-booked taxi with airportdriver.at. After the baggage claim, take the left exit and walk left. The driver will wait for you there.

1. City Airport Train / CAT

The CAT takes just 16 minutes nonstop to get from central Vienna to the airport and vice versa. The City Airport Train operates daily from 05.36 a.m. to 23.36 p.m. The City Air Terminal is just 10 minutes from St. Stephan’s Cathedral at “Landstraße - Wien Mitte” station, which can be reached easily by tram, underground, bus or taxi. The price for a single fair is €11.00, the exact timetable and more information can be found here: <http://www.cityairporttrain.com/>

Overview departure time CAT

Departure	Arrival	First train (departure)	Last train (departure)	Duration
Wien Mitte	Vienna Airport	05:36 (then 06 & 36 min. past the hour)	23.06	16 min
Vienna Airport	Wien Mitte	06:06 (then 06 & 36 min. past the hour)	23.36	16 min

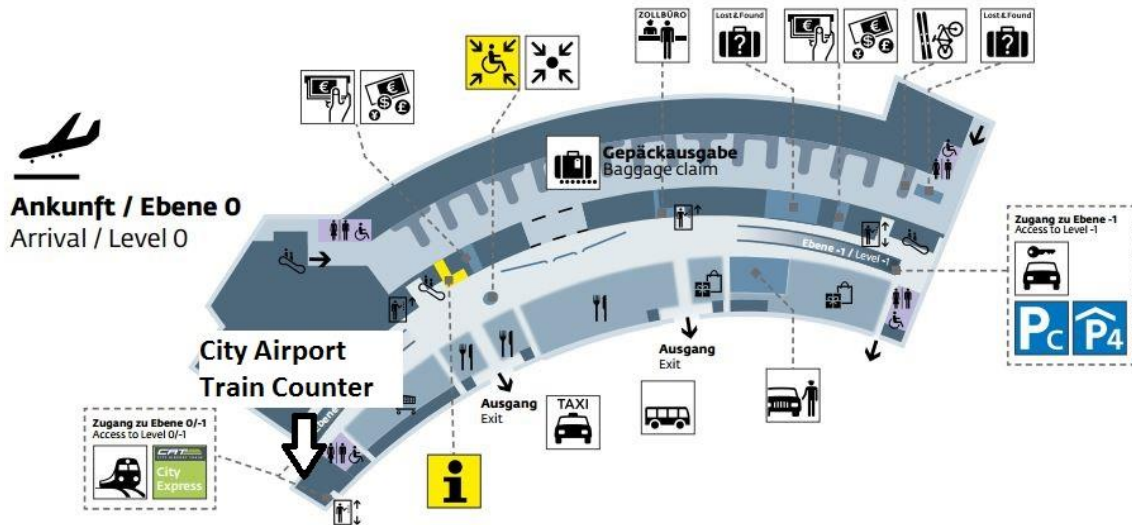

2. S-Bahn / suburban railway

The Schnellbahn (S-Bahn) is a low-priced way of getting from Vienna to the airport and back. Price: from € 4.40 (including travel on Vienna public transport). Ticket machines are on the platforms at the airport and at Wien Mitte.

The following table gives a summary of the S-Bahn timetable between “Landstraße - Wien Mitte” and Vienna Airport. To get to the city center you need to take the S-Bahn line “S7” in direction “Floridsdorf”.

Departure	Arrival	First suburban railway (departure)	Last suburban railway (departure)	Duration
Wien Mitte	Vienna Airport	04:30 (then approx. Every 30 min)	23:45	25 min
Vienna Airport	Wien Mitte	04:56 (then approx. Every 30 min))	00:17	25 min

About Vienna

Vienna is old, Vienna is new – and so diverse: from the magnificent Baroque buildings to “golden” Art Nouveau or the latest architecture. Vienna is packed with imperial history; at the same time it has exciting contemporary museums, lively eating and a vibrating nightlife, but also many quiet corners to explore.

Few cities can boast the imperial grandeur of Vienna, once the centre of the powerful Habsburg monarchy. Lipizzaner stallions performing elegant equine ballet, the angelic tones of the Vienna Boys' Choir drifting across a courtyard and, outrageously opulent palaces.

Walk in the footsteps of the Habsburgs, visit the splendid baroque Schönbrunn or Belvedere Palaces, or stroll along the magnificent Ring Boulevard to take a look at the heart of the former vast Habsburg Empire, the Imperial Palace. Get a sense of the luster and glory of the old empire by visiting St. Stephen's Cathedral, the Spanish Riding School, and the Giant Ferris Wheel at the Prater, as well as the sarcophagi in the Imperial Vault.

Schloss Schönbrunn

Visit Empress Sisi's former summer residence. This baroque complex contains an enchanting park, the Palm House, the Gloriette and a zoo. Spend an entire day at Schönbrunn: visit the show rooms with a "Grand Tour with Audio Guide," admire the splendid Bergl Rooms, and stroll through the "Labyrinth." Schönbrunn Zoo in Vienna is the oldest existing zoo in the world and has been named Europe's best on three occasions. Each year more than two million visitors come to see the panda baby, new-born elephants and many other rare animals.

Beautiful and celebrated Empress Elisabeth has long since become a cult figure. The Sisi Museum in the Imperial Apartments of the Imperial Palace compares the myth and the facts. Among the highlights are numerous personal objects once owned by Elisabeth as well as the most famous portraits of the beautiful empress.

The Spanish Riding School is only a few steps away from the Sisi Museum and will be celebrating the 450th anniversary of its first written mention with gala performances on Heldenplatz in 2015.

Emperor Franz Joseph officially opened Vienna's Ringstrasse on May 1, 1865. Vienna is celebrating its 150th birthday in 2015 with numerous events and exhibitions. The most beautiful boulevard in the world not only rich in sights, it also has large parks, important monuments, and much more. About 800 buildings line the boulevard today. Additional sights on the Ringstrasse, aside from the many opulent buildings, include the black-gold lattice fence in front of the Hofburg, the world's longest fence from the age of Historicism, the 5.5-meter-tall Pallas Athene statue in front of the Parliament, and the "Rathausmann", a statue of a man on the tower of City Hall.

Vienna State Opera

The University of Vienna is the second oldest German-speaking University in the world. The building on the Ring was erected in the style of the Italian High Renaissance. The first university in Vienna had already be founded in 1365, but elsewhere in the city. That's why the 650th birthday of the most important educational institution in the country will be celebrated in 2015.

Vienna is one the most musical cities in the world. This is partly due to the vast number of great composers and musicians who were born here or lived and worked here. Visiting Austria's capital therefore means experiencing the works of Mozart, Haydn, Schubert, Beethoven, Johann Strauss and many others in venues like the Staatsoper and Musikverein. The music of Bach and Händel continues to be performed in Vienna's historic churches today, and Vienna's Collection of Ancient Musical Instruments, paired with a visit to the Haus der Musik, takes you deeper into the texture of music and how it is created. Venues for classical music are augmented by some great clubs and live rock and jazz places.

Volksgarten

The Mercer Study has chosen Vienna as the world's number one most liveable city for the sixth time in a row in 2015. More than half of the metropolitan area is made up of green spaces. 280 imperial parks and gardens enrich the cityscape. In spring, 400 species of rose bloom in the Volksgarten alone. The nearby recreation areas of Prater, Vienna Woods and Lobau invite visitors to go on walks, day trips, hikes and bicycle tours. Vienna has a total of 2,000 parks.

St. Stephen's Cathedral is the symbol of Vienna. Construction commenced in the 12th century. Today, it is one of the most important Gothic structures in Austria. Stephen's Cathedral is located directly in the city centre, at the religious and geographical heart of Vienna. It's giant Pummerin bell features on television as it rings in the New Year.

It's hard to imagine a more liveable city than Vienna. This is a metropolis where regulars sit in cosy coffee houses and offer credible solutions to the world's chaos over the noble bean; where Beisln (bistro pubs) serve delicious brews, wines and traditional food; where talented chefs are taking the capital in new culinary directions; and where an efficient transport system will ferry you across town from a restaurant to a post-dinner drink in no time at all. It's safe, it has lots of bicycle tracks and it even has its own droll sense of humour.

Vienna is a city where postmodernist and contemporary architectural designs contrast and fuse with the monumental and historic. The MuseumsQuartier is a perfect example, with modern museum architecture integrated into a public space created around former stables for the Habsburgs' horses.

Museumsquartier

Twentieth-century designs are little short of inspiring, while contemporary Vienna is constantly being given new and exciting infrastructural designs such as the new Twin City Liners boat landing and the enormous Hauptbahnhof.

Vienna also hosts several international events such as the famous opera ball that takes place every year in February, which is taking place in the Vienna State Opera. The Life Ball, one of the biggest AIDS charity events worldwide also takes place in Vienna and is held in front of the city hall. Each Life Ball is attended by stars, designers and politicians from all over the world such as Bill Clinton, Katy Perry and Charlize Theron and Jean Paul Gaultier. In 2015 Vienna is celebrating not only one but three anniversaries; 150 years Ringstrasse, 450 years of the Spanish Riding School and 650 years University Vienna. Furthermore Vienna is honoured to host the 60th Eurovision Song Contest in May 2015.

Exhibitions

Monet to Picasso. The Batliner Collection

Under the title “Monet to Picasso”, the Albertina exhibits its vast holdings of paintings from the period of Modernism, which are primarily made up of works from the Batliner Collection. The epochs covered by this reinstallation of the museum’s permanent collection range from Impressionism and Fauvism to German Expressionism, the Bauhaus, and the Russian avant-garde; the presentation concludes with works by Picasso.

Lee Miller

Lee Miller (1907-1977) is considered one of the most fascinating artists of the 20th century. In over five decades, she produced a body of photographic work of a range that remains unparalleled, and that unites the most divergent genres. Miller’s oeuvre extends from surrealist images to photography in the fields of fashion, travelling, portraiture and even war correspondence; the Albertina presents a survey of the work in its breadth and depth, with the aid of 90 selected pieces.

Drawing Now: 2015

Forty years after Drawing Now, the legendary exhibition mounted jointly with the MoMA in New York, 2015 will see the Albertina once again attempt to take stock of what drawing means or can mean today. In the present showing, selected works by 36 international artists and artist groups turn the spotlight on relevant movements of the past ten years.

Tornado Amarillo Doble,
Thyssen-Bornemisza Art

Drawing Now: 2015 illustrates the broad spectrum of present-day tendencies of drawing in art: its range of featured works runs from the abstract to the figurative and from sketches to large-scale projects planned in great detail. In terms of content, the artists devote their works to private experiences, simple everyday observations, and political events. They also reflect on the medium of drawing itself, examining the conditions and possibilities of such works’ production while also making a theme of appropriated drawing and drawing as a performative or collaborative act.
